FEATURED WINE: CLENDENEN FAMILY VINEYARDS, CALIFORNIA

Jim Clendenen was one of the greatest wine producers in California, and his spectacular Au Bon Climat wines from Santa Barbara have become the benchmark wines from the region . Jim also created a 'winemakers series' with his son and daughter under the 'Clendenen Family Vineyards' label. These are small-batch, rare bottlings including unique varietals for Santa Barbara.

Grenache Gris 2021 . . . . .	19.50	78.00
-------------------------------------	-------	-------

The Rancho La Cuna vineyard has a small parcel of Grenache Gris which originates from the South of France. It is aromatic with notes of citrus, melon, peach and fresh pine.

Chardonnay Bien Nacido 2018 . . . . .	125.00
--	--------

The Bien Nacido vineyard is one of Au Bon Climat's most fabled sites. This single vineyard expression was barrel fermented in new French oak for two years.

RED

Pip Nebbiolo 2018 . . . . .	20.75	83.00
------------------------------------	-------	-------

Pip was named after Jim's beloved dog. This cuvée sees less oak so that it can be enjoyed younger. This wine offers all the character we see from Italian Nebbiolo with a plush Californian edge.

Pinot Noir Le Bon Climat 2010 . . . . .	150.00
--	--------

Le Bon Climat is an exceptional vineyard for Pinot Noir, exhibiting complex fruit, herbal and spice aromas and an incredible depth and finish.
